

Indefatigable oak collector for decades, his oak-hunting travels took him across the United States, Mexico, and, his last voyage, to Costa Rica, when he was 93 years old. He will be dearly missed by all who had the chance to meet him and to visit the wonderful Arboretum de Chocha that he created in the 1970s.

IN MEMORIAM

Michel Duhart

(April 1, 1923 - April 1, 2026)

With his doctor and daughter celebrating his 103rd birthday.